

Geography – Iceland Outline Itinerary

Day 1
AM	Flight from UK to Reykjavik
PM	Guided tour of Reykjavik. Visits could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Reykjavik City Hall &amp; Hallgrímskirkja Church with its striking raised-relief map of Iceland</li> <li>• Flyover Iceland - A BRAND NEW addition to our programme. State-of-the-art technology gives you the feeling of flight while a film whisks you away on an exhilarating journey across Iceland creating an unforgettable experience'</li> <li>• Perlan Centre - learn all about Icelandic nature, volcanoes, northern lights, glaciers, ocean-life, seabirds and so much more.</li> </ul> Check in to your accommodation
Day 2
	Meet your local guide for a full day touring Iceland's Golden Circle. Visits could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Thingvellir National Park - A chance to explore the Mid-Atlantic Ridge, the boundary between the North American and Eurasian tectonic plates</li> <li>• Gullfloss waterfall - View these two impressive waterfalls, with a combined drop of 32 metres, and the striking Gullfossgjúfur canyon</li> <li>• Geysir Center - A chance to study hot springs, fumaroles, mud pots and geysers, including the famous Great Geysir and the active Strokkur</li> <li>• Kerið Crater - Walk around the red volcanic rock slopes of this caldera and look at how the crater was formed.</li> </ul>
Evening option	Secret Lagoon. Your opportunity to enjoy the healing powers of these geothermal baths
Day 3
AM	Meet your local guide for a full tour of Iceland's Southern Shore. Visits could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lava Centre - Visit an interactive educational exhibition dedicated to Iceland's volcanic activity filled with a collection of artefacts, films and graphics from various volcanic eruptions that have occurred in the past century</li> <li>• Seljalandsfoss waterfall - See where the Skógá River tumbles over cliffs of the former coastline, a coastline that now lies roughly 5 kilometres away.</li> <li>• Skógar Waterfall - Walk along the black sand beaches where you will have a chance to see the impressive ball basalt columns formed after volcanic eruptions</li> <li>• Sólheimajökull Glacier - A highlight of your tour. Join experienced local</li> </ul>

	guides for a truly memorable opportunity to explore this glacial tongue, eight kilometres long and two kilometres wide. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Reynisfjara Black Sand Beach - Walk along the black sand beaches where you will have a chance to see the impressive ball basalt columns formed after volcanic eruptions</li> </ul>
Evening option	Icelandic Lava Show - The only place in the world where you can safely experience hot molten lava in close proximity. The show, which is both educational and exhilarating, recreates a volcano eruption, similar to those of both Eyjafjallajökull and Katla
Day 4
AM	Meet your local guide for a tour of the Reykjanes Peninsula. Visits may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• “Bridge Between the Continents” - a chance to walk across from the North American to the Eurasian continental plate and back again.</li> <li>• Hellisheidi Power Station - Visit the third-largest geothermal power station in the world to see how Iceland has harnessed geothermal energy in a sustainable manner</li> </ul>
AM	Transfer to Reykjavik for your flight back to the UK Flight from Reykjavik to UK